School Safety

As Principal of ASCS, school safety for all students, staff and families is my highest priority. With the assistance of Georgia Trochinski, Chief Plantz, and the Berlin Area School District, I am now a member of the district School Safety Committee. This important step places ASCS as partners in school safety with the BASD and law enforcement. Together we will develop common policies, procedures, and practices to assist in the event of a serious event.

Our first order of business is the implementation of ALICE training. ALICE stands for Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, and Evacuate. ALICE was the first active shooter preparation training in the country and provides proactive, options-based strategies and survival skills. All ASCS staff will complete online training this month and participate in active shooter training during our fall in-service. Students will receive age appropriate information in order to practice and respond in the event of an intruder. Families will receive more information prior to school starting including a citywide Safety Night in the fall. For more information about ALICE, visit www.alicetraining.com.

In other safety news, we requested a safety inspection with Police Liaison Officer, Georgia Trochinski. Officer Trochinski stated we have a very safe school and recommended minimal changes. While ASCS is a very safe school, we will be applying for funds in the State of Wisconsin School Safety Grant program. The $100 million program is designed to help schools purchase items such as door locks, shatterproof films for exterior doors, security cameras and much more. We will keep you informed as the grant moves forward. If you have grant writing experience, please contact me. The grant is due June 8. Thank you!

NEW Visitor Protocol

The School Safety Grant requires us to have a Visitor Protocol for all people entering ASCS during the school day. Part of our summer work is adding a second security door in the main entrance to school. This will require all visitors to use the check in window to the office prior to entering the building and receive a visitor pass. The new Visitor Protocol is attached to this E-Communication and will be published on the school website. Thank you for helping keep our school safe.

All Saints Catholic School fourth and fifth grade students joined together with Renewable World Foundation in a two day field trip. On day one, students learned about water conservation at the Neshkoro Mill Dam. Students cooked lunch with solar panels, built water filters, and tested water quality. On the second day, students canoed the White River with Bill Harris and Jason Kreuzscher from Renewable World Foundation.

ASCS 2018-19 School Calendar

The ASCS school calendar for the 2018-19 school year is now available on the school website. You will notice two calendaring items that are different this year.

Wednesday Late Starts – There are 25 Wednesdays (highlighted in yellow) when school will start at 9:00AM and buses will run one hour later than normal. This is new for all Berlin Area Schools, and as a partner in 4K and for busing purposes, we run our calendar very similar to the school district. During this Late Start time, ASCS teachers will be working on professional development projects. Look for more information on our professional development plans for 2018-19 coming soon.

Spring Break and Easter – You will notice a much earlier Spring Break in March at the end of the 2nd Trimester. There are also (3) days off after Easter (highlighted in orange). These three days are part of a NCEA Convention 2019 – Proclamation by Bishop Morlino the requests all Diocese of Madison schools to attend the National Catholic Education Association National Convention in Chicago. All full-time teaching staff at ASCS will be attending workshops for these three days.

Planning for 2018-19

In addition to the Refurbishment Project, planning is well underway for the 2018-19 school year.

- Mrs. Jill Jensen (Grade 2) has announced she will be leaving ASCS to join her husband, Tom, where he has been working in Independence, WI. Words cannot express our thanks to Mrs. Jensen for her dedication and work at ASCS. Our prayers go out to Jill and Tom in this new life adventure. Mrs. Melinda Ahasay has accepted the Grade 2 position beginning next fall. Mrs. Ahasay has been team teaching Grade 2 this year.
- New Report Cards coming this fall – Beginning next year, parents will receive new report cards (K-8) that will contain more information regarding student progress. Report cards will contain learning targets or benchmarks in addition to achievement grades. We are currently working with the software company and will share samples and more information with you near the beginning of school in September.
- New Diocesan Standards and Benchmarks – I have had the great privilege of working with the Assistant Superintendent of Schools for the Diocese of Madison, Dr. Michael Flanagan, over the past two years to rewrite new Diocesan Standards and Benchmarks for Literacy, Math, Science and Social Studies. These new sets of skills will be used by teachers for instruction and reported on our report cards.
- Late Starts – Prior to the addition of late starts scheduled for next year, ASCS staff conducted professional development opportunities on Monday's after school. Teachers often stayed far beyond contracted time to help our school grow and for the continued success of our students. We covered a wide range of topics including individualized learning, STAR 360 data analysis, our Sainly Way – PBIS system, ongoing religious education training and much more. With the addition of late starts, we will move our professional development to Wednesday mornings from 7:30AM-8:30AM.

Our professional development goals for 2018-19 will be:

- School Safety and ALICE training
- Mapping (planning) our new standards and benchmarks for the entire year.
- Creating and revising our new report cards for parents.
- Evaluating instructional materials based on the new standards.
